RULES
for checking the accuracy of the information included in election documents submitted to the Constituency Election Commission for the verification and registration of candidacy to deputy and the registration of candidates in Elections to the Milli Majlis of the Republic of Azerbaijan

Checking the accuracy of the information included in election documents submitted to the Constituency Election Commission for the verification and registration of candidacy to deputy and the registration of candidates in Elections to the Milli Majlis of the Republic of Azerbaijan (hereafter referred to as Milli Majlis) shall be regulated by Articles 53, 54, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 146, 147 and 148 of the Election Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan (hereafter referred to as- Election Code) and the Rules.

1. General provisions

1.1. The relevant election commission shall check the accuracy of the information in the documents defined by the Election Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan (hereafter referred to as Election Code), signature sheets of each candidate and conformity of the nomination procedure with the requirements of the Code. The relevant election commission shall check the accuracy of the information on biographies submitted by candidates, political parties, political party blocs, voters and other information about the candidate pursuant to the Election Code (Article 59.1 of the Election Code).

1.2. The relevant election commission can apply to the relevant bodies to check the accuracy of the information and facts submitted pursuant to the Election Code. These bodies shall inform the election commission on the results of checking in period defined by the election commission, if there are less than 40 days prior to the voting day, then at latest within a (one) day. The relevant election commission can establish Working Group consisting of experts to check the accuracy of signatures in signature sheets and relevant information by its decision. The Working Group shall be chaired by the member of the election commission who has established this Group. Experts, specialists from the relevant bodies, as well as, experts from specific bodies and organizations conducting the registration of the population can be involved in this checking process. While they are preparing the opinion, voters' lists and citizens' registration system can be used to define the accuracy of the information in signature sheets.

1.3. While checking signature sheets, the relevant election commission can ensure the participation of candidates, authorized representatives of candidates, political parties and political party blocs upon informing them pursuant to Article 59.3 of the Election Code.

1.4. Checking of signatures shall be stopped only when the number of proper signatures provides the candidate registration with the basis or the number of the remaining signatures is not enough for the candidate registration. Accuracy or non-accuracy of voters' signatures shall be approved according to the results of checking (Article 59.4 of the Election Code).

1.5. Crossed out signatures in the signature sheets of the people who have nominated a candidate shall not be checked and registered if persons who collect signatures made relevant notes on it before they submit the signature sheets to the relevant election commission (Article 59.5 of the Election Code).

1.6. If a signature of one person appears several times while checking them, only one signature shall be considered valid, others shall be considered incorrect (Article 59.6 of the Election Code).

1.7. Along with provisions of Article 59.6 of the Election Code, the following signatures shall also be considered incorrect: (Article 59.7 of the Election Code):

1.7.1. the signatures of voters who do not have the right to vote based on the opinion of invited specialists to the work of election commission according to Article 59.2 of the Election Code or based on the reference given by relevant executive authority or who have included incorrect information (Article 59.7.1 of the Election Code of the Republic of Azerbaijan).

1.7.2. signatures of voters included in signature sheets before the notification on nomination of the candidate is sent to relevant election commission (Article 59.7.2 of the Election Code).

requirements of Article 57.1 of the Election Code (Article 59.7.3 of the Election Code).

1.7.4. signatures put by one person on behalf of several persons or by several persons on behalf of one person (Article 59.7.4 of the Election Code).

1.7.5. signatures which are not put by hand or put by pencil (Article 59.7.5 of the Election Code).

1.8. If dates of signatures have been changed in the signature sheets, these signatures shall be considered correct providing that the persons who approve signature sheets verify them (Article 59.8 of the Election Code).

1.9. All of the signatures in the signature sheets shall be considered invalid if signature sheets are not certified with the signature of the person who collected them, also by the authorized representative of the candidate, political party, political party blocs, or if the signature of authorized representative is not correct (Article 59.9 of the Election Code).

1.10. If the line of words in signature sheets do not comply with Election Code, excluding the cases defined by Articles 59.7-59.9 of Election Code, then only the signature on this line shall be considered invalid (Article 59.10 of Election Code).

1.11. According to Articles 59.6-59.10 of the Election Code, if signatures are not defined incorrect, during examining accuracy of signatures and determining the number of signatures, changes and notes made in the signature list in a defined manner should not be the reason for considering the signature invalid (Article 59.11 of the Election Code).

1.12. According to Articles 59.6-59.10 and 147 of the Election Code, the candidate shall not be registered if the number of signatures is less than required number for registration after invalid signatures have been removed (Article 59.12 of the Election Code).

1.13. The head of a working group and a member of relevant election commission who has decisive right to vote shall prepare a protocol on results of checking signature sheets of each candidate to deputy, then sign it and give to the election commission for a relevant decision. The protocol shall indicate the number of checked signatures of voters and number of invalid signatures with a note of reason (Appendix # 2 made to Rules).

1.14. The protocol shall be attached to the relevant decision of the election commission. A copy of the protocol shall be submitted to a candidate, authorized representative of political party, political party blocs at least 24 hours prior to the meeting of election commission which deals with candidate registration. A candidate, a political party, political party blocs shall have the right to get the copy of the protocol approved by the head of working group, by showing the reasons for considering signatures invalid, including number of a relevant folder and number of line in relevant signature sheet and copy of the table on results of examination if signatures are less than the required quantity of voter signatures during examination of signatures (Article 59.13 of the Election Code).
